DUTY TO AVOID UNNECESSARY COSTS OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate insaving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States to waive service of summons, fails to do so will be required to beer the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to eign and return the

It is not good cause for a failure to weive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the ection has been brought in an unproper place or in a court that tacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the ection or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the varietr form serve on the plaintiffs attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer, than if the summons had actually served, when the request for waiver of service was received.
